The American Revolution Project
Written Project Requirements

This applies if you are writing a scrapbook or children’s book

2. Create a scrap book about the American Revolution.

Requirements

1. ½” 3 ring binder for your book. If you prefer, you can bind your own book string, glue, etc.

3. Reasearch the American Revolution and use NoodleTools. Use the Reasearch Guide tab called American Revolution in Mr. Emmons’ LIBGUIED

The minimum research requirements are:

a) Create at least 3 bibliographies in NoodleTools. You should create at least 2 note cards per bibliography.

b) Using your research sources, find at least five (4) significant events from the American Revolution. Then create one notecard for each event. Your notecard should have two parts: Part 1 – use the quotation area to write basic information about the event: When, Where, Who, and What happened. Part 2 – use the paraphrase section to write down why you chose this event and why you think it was important in the American Revolution.

c) Using your research sources, find at least four (4) historical figures, (people) who were important during the American Revolution. Then create one notecard for each person you have selected. Your notecard should have two parts: Part 1 – use the quotation area to write basic information about the person: Dates they were born and died, Where they lived, and What they did. Part 2 – use the paraphrase section of the notecard to write down why you chose this person and why you think he or she was important in the American Revolution.

4. Create your children’s book or your scrapbook. It should have at least 9 pages: 5 event pages and 4 historical people pages. At a minimum, each page must contain:

a) Top of Page: draw or use an image or representation for the top ½ of the paper

b) Bottom of Page: A description summary of the event or historical figure. For the summary, make sure you use at least 2 long paragraphs. The first paragraph, should contain the 5 W’s. The second paragraph should describe why you think the event or person is important in the American Revolution.

c) If you are writing a story in a children’s book, make sure you include the above requirements as part of your story. Incorporate the historical facts and “whys” into your story. Your book should also include images.

d) Scrapbooks can include keepsakes or “scarpbook” type things. (Keepsake things that you may find during that time.)

5. Include a timeline of all of your events and people. Think about what information you want on your timeline. Be creative.

6. Be CREATIVE!!!!
