Your name: ____________________________ Activist: ____________________________

Checklist for Dinner Party Research and Placemat

(Fill in each box with a check mark once you have completed the direction given.)

Placemat and this checklist due Tuesday, Jan. 30th.

Source requirements: At least (3)

- 1 Book (I have books in the room, there are more in the library)
- 1 Library database (use the Research Guide)
- 1 Source of your choice (internet/book/magazine)

- Cite all sources in Noodletools, and take all notes on index cards

- To be pasted on placemat:
  * Notes about your activist that will help you during dinner.
  * Three (3) quotes about or by your activist
  * Four (4) pictures

- As you research, try to make any connections to other events or people that interest you.

- All notes/quotes need to be TYPED

- Glue your picture citations on the back of your placemat

Be prepared to respond to these questions during your conversation:

1. How did “ordinary” people push through and achieve such “extraordinary” accomplishments?

2. What “moral dilemmas” might you have experienced?

3. Why do we all need to learn about you (your activist)?

4. What important lessons can we all learn from you - then and now?

5. How did your actions/writings change the world we live in today?